Doors

There are many doors

Exactly what do we mean when we say that there are many doors. We mean only one thing. This nation is a wondrous land of great opportunity. These doors, the doors of opportunity, are open, revealing myriads of vocations to those who will make the most of their present state of life, students. This world is a fast-moving one, but a world for only the strong, determined, and quick of mind. Apply yourself now and later meet the challenge of the future. Enter one of the many doors!

Warriors Salute Principal

Father Larroque opens the doors of opportunity to the students of St. Frederick High School.

Aside from being principal Fr. Larroque finds time to teach.

The keys to the 1966 Driver's Education Car are presented to Fr. Larroque...

1966 Dedication

We dedicate the 1966 Warrior to Father Warren Larroque, our principal. Father Larroque has been holding open doors for us in the three years he has served us as principal, first at St. Matthew's, then at St. Frederick's. His policy is to let the other person be first and he has carried out this policy with courtesy and consistency. The open door also symbolizes Father's approachableness and spirit of understanding. We hope this dedication will express, in a minute way, the gratitude the faculty and student body feel for Father Larroque.

Initiation

Freshmen entering St. Frederick have one day set aside for their formal initiation into high school. The seniors order, and the lowly freshmen quickly obey.

The freshman class chose Tommy Buttita and Maria Scalia as the best Seniors. Even though they gave the freshmen a hard time, the meaning of Initiation was utmost in their minds.

Lanny Dickman and Kay Inzina were chosen by the Seniors as best freshmen. Their sense of humor and sportmanship never died!

That night the freshmen entertained the Seniors. The stage became a place of skits, songs, gaiety, and laughter.

The climax came. The day was over. It was exciting and trying, yet will always be remembered.

For this couple the last dance of prom came quite fast.

As part of Mrs. Popham's speech class, students give a one act play.

School isn't just meeting people and having fun. As many of the juniors will tell you there is a lot of studying to be done.

John Henderson serves as S.F.H.S. photographer for 1966.

Kathi Savage, Leonard Miller and Steve Bragg, representing the drama club, perform in the play, "This Night Shall Pass."

Prior to a night of wild music, dancing and just plain fun, Harvest Hop also means work.

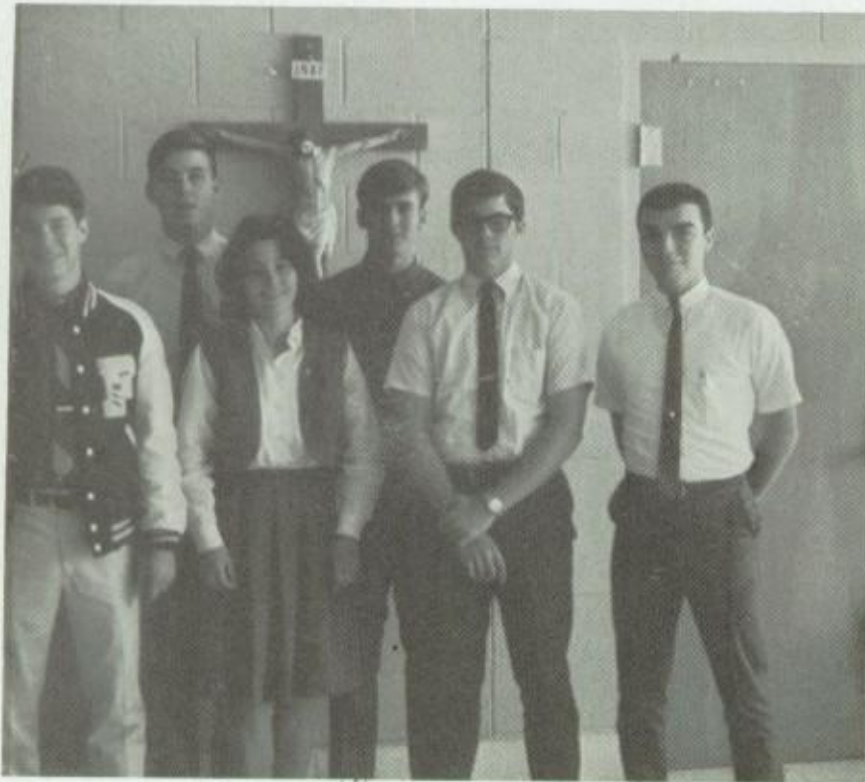

Awards

Kathi Savage receives best actress award; Ann Licht, best Thespian; and Leonard Miller, best actor.

Susie Inzina - valedictorian
Tim Hanlon - salutatorian

Speech tournament winners.

Those who placed at the Ruston Rally.

Honors

These students work, plan, study and do all the other things most individuals do, but they do something in addition - they lead. They not only receive acknowledgement and recognition, but some also receive awards, like a trophy or a medal. The monetary value is small compared to the honor of their achievement. What they do with it and how many more honors they capture is up to them. But one thing is certain: if they continue to achieve, they will continue to lead and to impress.

Marianne, Freddy, and Susanne are winners in the District Math Fair.

Jim Storm and Jo Ann Rizzo are presented the Optimist Trophy.

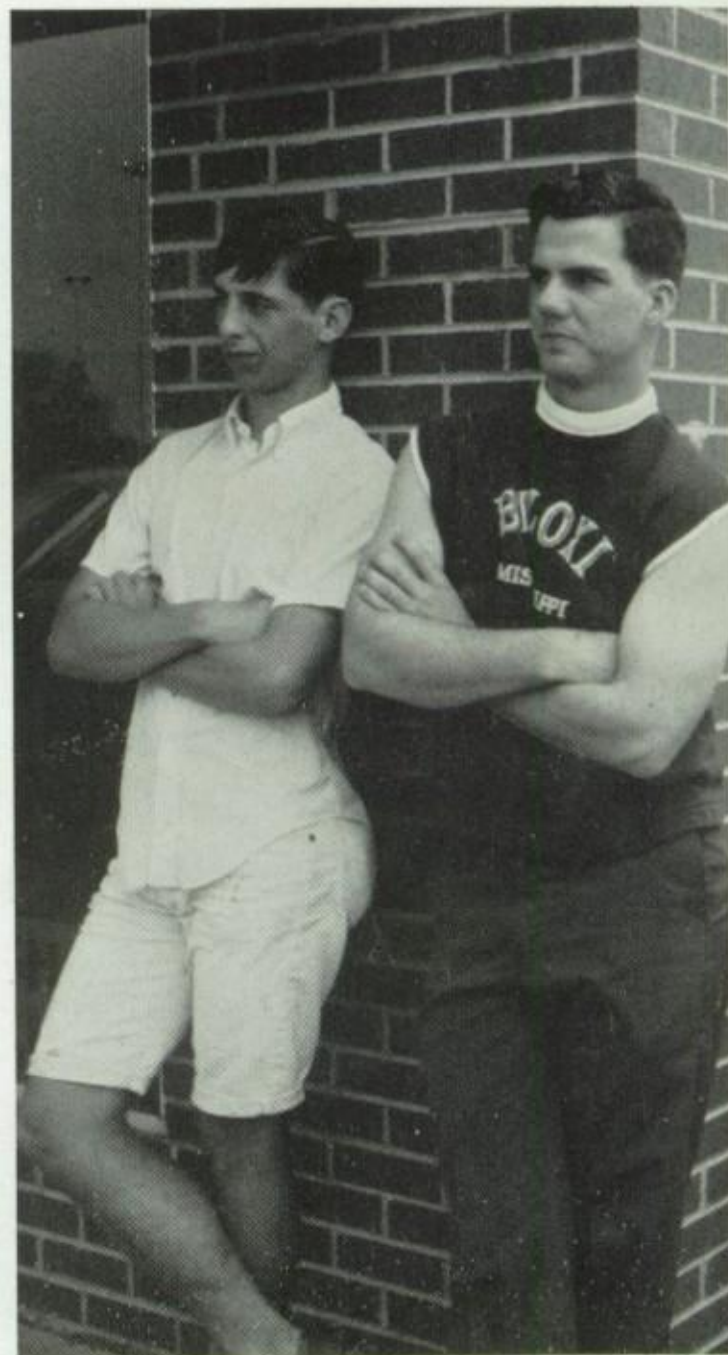

Jo Ann Rizzo receives the Bishop Greco Award.

The proud senior displays his ring to everyone.

After the novelty of his ring is worn out, he finds a lot of time, well, for just hanging around.

A senior puts up with the long hours... the undone homework, and no supper all for one cause, the senior play, "The Night of January 16."

Being of sound mind and body, a senior upon leaving one world is pushed into another, a bigger and more demanding world. Tina Charlton reads their last will and testament.

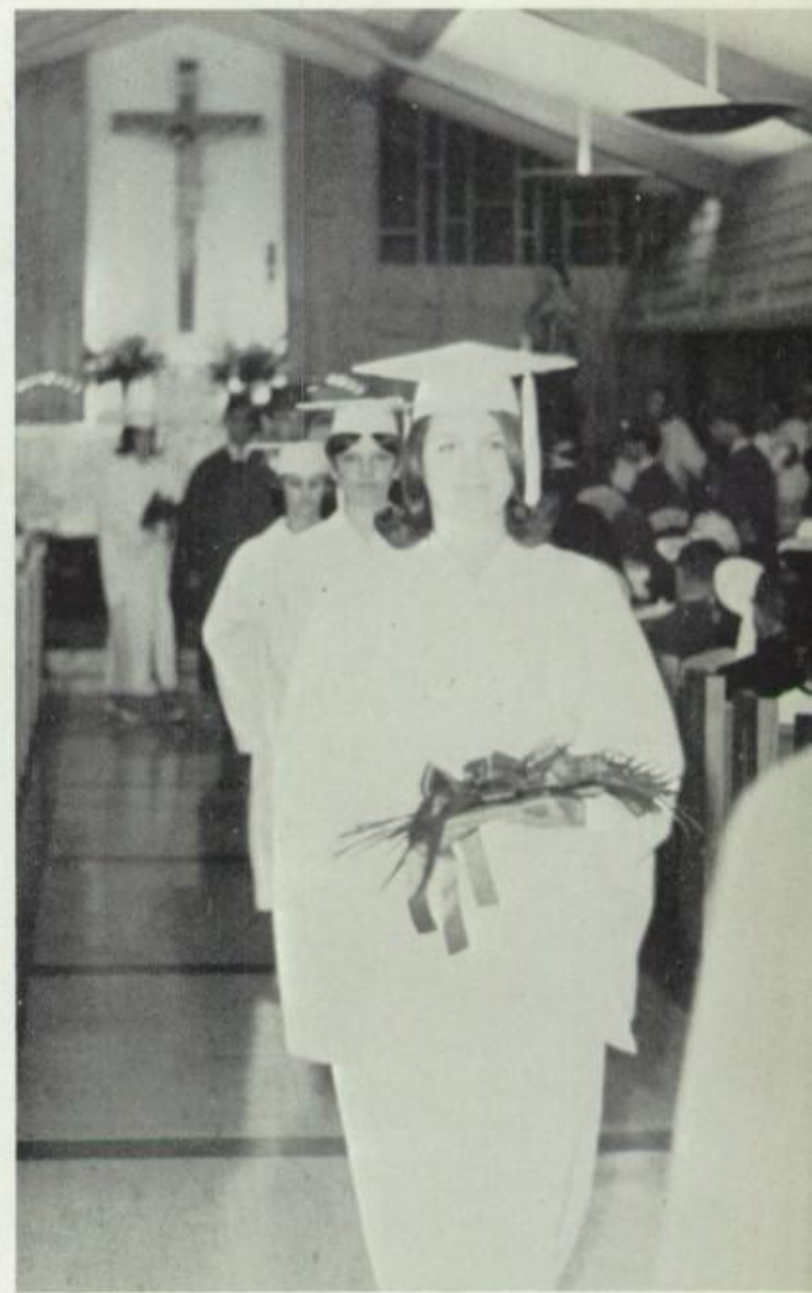

A Senior . . .

The realization of graduation finally meets the senior face to face.

This is not the end.
It is not even the beginning of the end.
It is rather the end of the beginning.

— Winston Churchill

A senior leaves his high school years behind and walks into the door of the future.

Mary Jo,
Go a real sweet and cute girl going to have enjoyed you. Ome Well, school with you. Ome Well,
more you won't hurt. Well,
'good luck' in the future.
love ya!
Judy (STORM)

Good Grief!
to get all those people
to sign your book?
Well, some people do have friends and your just & the type. Sweet threw & threw (wrong kind of throw)
Good luck. you'll need out if it. Keep that smile you're really foolin' them.
Love ya!
Marsha

Mary Jo,

I don't even know you — but thank you for cutting me use your annual; I guess you'd have to be pretty nice to do that. Right? You ain't wrong! Well anyway good luck and that, and good luck at St. Zuddies (knowin' you need it!). I may see you next yr.

"Daff" (Daffy "IT IS")

Mary Jo,
To a real sweet girl who will go far
if you keep your sweet personality. Love ya
Margaret Breard

To a very sweet girl —
may you be always good and studious.
God Bless you!
S. Aloysius

Mary Jo

You are the quietest
but sweetest girl I know! I've known you for a long time and you have not changed
Stay sweet & pretty
Love Ya
Sarah

Mary Jo,
You are a very
vibrant and outgoing girl.
You always seem so happy and pleased with life. Stay this way, never change!
Good luck in high school.
